

GLAD TIDE-INGS! September 16, 2011

A little bit of news, folks!

BEE SUNDAY! Please make sure to attend our Fall Kick-Off! And, this is a VERY appropriate service for bringing friends. We are going to be re-introduced to Daniel Goldsmith, our fabulous new/old accompanist. We'll have our picnic after worship (and please remember that this is partially pot-luck - you are asked to bring salads, desserts, etc. ). And there will be prizes!

SAY CHEESE! Remember, this is the week for our Photo Directory sittings. Thursday through Saturday - please check your appointment info, spruce up, and be on time!

DATES TO REMEMBER:

The Memorial Planning Workshop is meeting again on Wednesday, 9/21 at 10 a.m. If you haven't already, do your homework!

Administrative Council meets on Wednesday, 9/21 at 7 p.m. Please get agenda topics to Pastor Pam ASAP.

The TIDE deadline is Friday, 9/23. Please get your material in on time!

UMM invites everyone to breakfast and a great presentation on Water - an ever-ore important topic these days: 8 a.m. on Saturday, 9/24.

PRAYERS, PLEASE:

Barbara Symons lost her beloved sister this week and prayers for her and the family would be very healing.

Also, Bill Moore continues at Stanford, struggling to come back from an infection and weakening of his kidneys. Not only that, but Connie's brother is now in the hospital and her mom just got out!! So, they could really use your prayers.

Thanks, everyone! Looking forward to seeing you soon!
